****IMPORTANT NOTICE******

The instructors at Pitner Driving School are approved third party testers for the Tennessee Department of Traffic Safety. This means that if a student resides in Tennessee and scores an 80% or better on the DOTS written test, then the instructor may waive the written part for the learner's permit. The student is still required to show proper identification and to take the vision test at a highway patrol station. If a student already holds a Tennessee learner's permit and is at least 15 years and 6 months of age, then the instructor may waive the road test if he deems that the student is "reasonably safe." The instructor reserves the right to make this decision after carefully evaluating the student's driving performance. Be aware that the DOTS may randomly select applicants with waivers to retest at the patrol stations.
